

150 Members and Visitors Fete Eastern Star on Birthday Night

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI
The Vel-De-Nez Music and Record Club heard the first song writing efforts of Judy Lee and Fred Smith at the monthly meeting held last Thursday at the home of Mae English in Compton.

Coleen English sang "Peaches and Cream," a new song written by an out-of-state member, Janet Pearson of San Pedro and "The Only One" and "Tru Lee Tru La." Her first number was written by Samuel King of Wilmington.

Judy Lee played the guitar and sang "I'm In Love With a Wandering Man" which was her first effort at song writing. She also sang "The Magic Wall" written by an out-of-state member.

Bob Davis of Torrance was heard via tape recording, doing "Love Me Again" which was his first in the way of writing lyrics and music.

Ted Doll and Verna Flynn, both of Lomita, sang a duet, and Leigh Erickson of Torrance did an instrumental called "Blue Trolley." Michael Perak, singing "Oh, Marie," Fred Smith of Lompton, a violinist and vocalist, sang several sacred numbers. Accompanist was Lomita's Verna Flynn.

The evening musical presentation was voted on for the quality and commercial value of the songs by a Panel of Review who were Alice Parker, Evelyn Pearson, Mrs. Peralta, Fred Smith, and Mr. Lee.

The club's number three song of last month, "Jesus is With You," has been released by the Accent label and is now available in the stores.

Inez Brumelow, president of the nationwide club, was honored with a cake baked by Mae English. The cake had a white background with roses and leaves circling the top, and in the center was written "Vel-De-Nez Inez Brumelow Third Year." The sandwiches were made unique by the use of pastel colored bread. Punch and coffee were also served.

The Birthday Night of the Order of Eastern Star, Chapter 591, was celebrated by 150 members and visitors Sept. 21 at the Lomita Masonic Temple.

Worthy Patron Oliver Hamilton presided over the business. Courtesy Officers for the evening were Associate Matron Ella France, San Pedro Harbor; Associate Patron Harry Bates, Point Fermin; Secretary Art Lillegren, Playa Linda; Treasurer Ed Morgan, Torrance; Conductress Dorothy Sawyer, Point Fermin; Associate Conductress Betty Merrill, Carnation; Marshal Dorothy Fyken, Torrance; Organist Jim Frassley, San Pedro Harbor; Adaha Doris Blake, Palestine Chapter; Ruth-Sylvia Viles, Rose Cross Chapter; Esther-Isabell Benham, Wilmington; Martha-Agnes Lillegren, Playa Linda; Electa-Margaret Bright, Palos Verdes; Warder Herb Roberts, Hawthorne; Sentinel Larry Newton, South Gate; Flag Bearer Frank Foust, Sunnyside; Bible Reader Stacey Foust, Sunnyside; Guest Book Emily Flowers, Acacia Chapter; Flower pin-ups Lela Anthony, Sunset Chapter and Ralph Stanley, Palos Verdes.

Deputy Grand Matron Bea LaFrance and Edna Babcock and Myrna Sams, both of whom served as deputies in 1953 and 1955, were introduced and honored in the East.

Past Matrons and Patrons of Lomita Chapter 591 introduced were Cecil Dowling, Jo Parsons, Les Parsons, Jack Graham, Cecile Goheen, Lucy Kergan, Dorothy Faulkner, Cecil Goheen. Six past Matrons and Patrons of other Chapters were also introduced.

Courtesy Associate Patron Harry Bates was in charge of the introductions of visitors.

Among those introduced was a visitor from Montreal, Canada. Worthy Matron Phyllis and Worthy Patron Oliver Hamilton were the recipients of many gifts from the officers. The Worthy Matron received numerous fans in a variety of shapes and sizes. In exchange, the honored couple presented each of their officers with ceramic bells inscribed with "Happy Birthday."

Theme for the evening was "Deerie," which was carried out in the centerpieces fashioned from miniature deer, pine cones and pine needles.

Tiny forest and smaller deer formed individual place settings. Ice cream, individual cakes, and coffee were served by the social chairman, Grace Roberts. She was assisted by Muriel Gasser and Dorothy Faulkner. Men helping were Burton Waahburn, Glen Holloway, John Boyd, Wally Williams, Jay Gasser, Carl Rother, Don Hanson, and Jack Graham.

Being featured tomorrow night (Sept. 28) at the Lomita Harbor City Community Sing will be the local talents of Ted Doll, Zella Butterfield, and Bertha Johnson and Judy Smith.

The sing includes 45 minutes of audience participation, with birthdays and anniversaries being honored. The get-together is under the regular direction of Vance Graham. However, Mr. Graham is at the State Fair, so Mark Cook will conduct. Verna Flynn is the accompanist.

Mrs. Edith Bench received a birthday present fit for a queen on her birthday Aug. 28th. A grandson, Boyd Dean, was born in Torrance Memorial Hospital weighing 6 lbs. 1 oz. The infant's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bench of 1620 W. 258th St. The mother is the former Mary Blakely.

The Degree Team of the Mohawk Tribe of the Imperial Order of the Redman has been invited to the degree work at the district meeting in Long Beach.

The initiation work of the Degree Team is done by Frank Markley, holding the office of Sachem; Earl Huston is Prophet; Steve Stevens is Sr. Sagamore; Johnny Nicley is Jr. Sagamore; Kenny Nicley is Sannap; Wilton Dowling is First Warrior; Joe Winters is Second Warrior; and Tom Wilson is Captain.

Future activities of the tribe will include a turkey dinner for the Degree Team some time in November.
